BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 640 of Title 10, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Oklahoma Partnership for School Readiness Act".

SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law not to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes reads as follows:

A. The Legislature recognizes that:

1. Parents have the right and the responsibility to provide for the health, education, and emotional well-being of their children, and it is the desire of the Legislature that all children be reared in nurturing homes with two involved parents who actively participate in the development of their young children;

2. The benefits of ensuring that children enter school ready to succeed can be substantial. Investing wisely during a child's early years can reduce the need for remediation, treatment, or crisis intervention programs in later years, and it is the desire of the Legislature that children be healthy, eager to learn, and ready to succeed by the time they enter school;

3. Children arrive at kindergarten with a variety of preschool and home experiences, along with varying levels of school readiness.

Identifying children who may be at risk of school failure, making their caregivers aware of the value of quality early childhood experiences and providing, on a voluntary basis, these children with the skills essential for reducing inequalities in school readiness can help ensure that more children enter kindergarten ready to succeed; and

4. The state may not achieve the ninety-percent reading goal pursuant to the Reading Sufficiency Act without ensuring that children enter school fully prepared to take advantage of reading instruction.

B. The Legislature further recognizes that, although the public and private sectors provide a number of excellent programs and have made significant investments in the children of this state, the benefits derived from these investments are not being optimized. Therefore better coordination of existing programs at the community and state levels is needed to increase their effectiveness and make them more cost-efficient.

C. It is the intent of the Legislature that the capacities of parents and communities be strengthened to meet the needs of families with young children who choose to participate by coordinating available resources and building new partnerships within communities that include parents, private businesses, faith-based and other charitable organizations, and other interested parties.

D. Coordination shall be accomplished by the establishment of a comprehensive public/private partnership and be implemented in cooperation with the state agencies represented on the Oklahoma Partnership for School Readiness Board created in Section 3 of this act.

SECTION 3. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 640.1 of Title 10, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:
